England Rejects Schouvaloff's Concession---Sending Invitations to the Congress---The Certainty of its Early Meeting---Prospects Brightening.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, May 27.—The Times Paris correspondent telegraphs: A private telegram from London states that England has rejected the detailed concessions offered by Count Schouvaloff, who thereupon declared Russia's readiness to submit all the questions raised by the treaty to the sanction of the Powers. It is known that on Saturday Germany was informed of the welcome solution, and was requested to immediately issue invitations.

The Times' leader says: Whatever may be the case as to the details, we have reason to believe our Vienna correspondent's information well founded. Invitations to the Congress will not be issued until the explanations between England and Russia are somewhat further determined, but there is no reason to apprehend a failure on such points. The preliminary requirements of England, at all events, on the whole, have been conceded.

All the papers that mention the subject, emphatically deny that there are any dissensions in the Cabinet.

PARIS, May 27.—The Journal des Debats publishes the following: "Berlin, May 26.h—Invitations to the Congress were dispatched yesterday. If matters shall be satisfactorily concluded, the treaty replacing modified treaties of Paris and San Stefano, will be signed at Berlin. The first steps for a definite arrangement between Russia and England were due to the efforts of Count Schouvaloff and the German Crown Prince."

LONDON, May 27.—Accounts received from every capitol in Europe concur as to the main feature of the political news, namely: the certainty of the early meeting of the Congress, but considerable anxiety is still apparent about the military preparations, and the situation before Constantinople. The attitude of Austria especially creates apprehensions at St. Petersburg, and these will not be allayed by the occupation of Adakaleh, which is Austria's first overt demonstration against Russia's settlement of the Eastern question, Russia having promised that Island to Servia. Servia is certain not to get it, unless the Congress awards it to her. Great secrecy is still maintained at St. Petersburg about the progress of negotiations by the unofficial press. Notably, the New Times, the Golos, and the Russki Mir, are beginning to attack the peaceful utterances of the Agence Russe, and the Journal De St. Petersburg. The Golos calls upon the government to abandon its reserve, and tell Russia whether the reports about yelding to England's demands are true or false.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times suggests that this sort of pressure may be convenient for Russia just now, in helping her to resist further English pressure.

The military situation at Constantinople remains ticklish.

The Times' correspondent at Pera apprehends that under influence of pressure from without, and Prince Labanoff's suave assurances, the withdrawal of the English fleet, alone, is necessary to render every thing pleasant again. The English popularity which now is certainly at its flood, is in danger of ebb and re-action.

In the House of Commons, to-day, Sir Stafford Northcote stated that he was unable to yet give the detailed information about the negotiations in relation to the Congress, but added that he might say, within a few days, the prospect of the meeting of the Congress had materially improved.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 27.—The Agence Russe says the general impression is that the prospect is favorable for peace. The Austrian occupation of the Island of Adakaleh has received the sanction of the Powers, because it tends to obviate the difficulties touching the navigation of the Danube.

LONDON, May 27.—The official Vienna Abend Post confirms the announcement made in the Paris Journal Des Debats yesterday and to-day, that Russia has conseuted to lay the treaty of San Stefano before the Congress, that all the powers have agreed to the proposal and invitations have been issued to them to attend the Congress, which will meet in Berlin on the 11th of June. The Political Correspondence has substantially the same information.

The Interview Between Sherman and Anderson.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Judge Shellabarger gives the following account of the interview between Sherman and Anderson, the Louisiana Supervisor of Elections: Sherman very emphatically expressed to me his objections to seeing Anderson. I saying to him, however, that I saw no objection to his seeing Anderson in the presence of sther persons. Very soon afterwards Anderson, Judge Marks and Gov. Hahn came into the Secretary's rooms together. After some time of silence, conversation passed between the Secretary and Anderson which I have been told since was reduced to writing by Mr. Sherman's Secretary. At the end of this conversation the Secretary asked if I desired to ask Mr. Anderson any questions. I said no, that I had come there because I had understood that Mr. Anderson had solicited an interview, and I come to hear what he had to say. Thereupon Mr. Anderson began to talk pretty loud, and to protest that he had gone over there on the invitation of others, and not because he wanted the interview, and to this a denial was then and there interposed by Judge Marks, and I believe Governor Hahn, alleging that they had gone over with him at his urgent solicitation. There the matter ended and Anderson and those who came with him left.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

Potter's Committee at Work---The Permanent Sinking Fund---Amendment to the Bankrupt Law---The Strength of our Army to be 20,000---The Investigating Committee.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 27,—Potter's Committee is sitting with closed doors.

Chamberlain opened before the committee on Privileges and Elections in behalf of Corbin in his contest with Butler. The session was private.

HOUSE—Under the call of States, Mr. Wood introduced the following: To establish a permanent sinking fund. It provides that there shall be appropriated for the fiscal year commencing July 1878 and for each succeeding year, out of the custom revenues, the sum of 100,000, 000 dollars, which shall be applied first to pay the interest on the public debt, to the redemption or purchase of so much of the outstanding principal of the public debt as can be purchased or reduced at not more than par, and accrued interest on all bonds so purchased or redeemed to cease to bear interest and to be cancelled or destroyed. It also repeals the acts providing for an annual sinking fund, Section five of the bill provides that the act shall be known as the Sinking Fund Act of 1878.

SENATE—Beck, of Kentucky, introduced a bill to repeal the existing taxes on capital and deposits, of bankers and banks and to impose taxes on dividens in excess of eight per cent. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

The district passed.

Blaine said when the correspondence relating to the appointment of Delfosse as a member of the Halifax commission on fisheries, was called for some two months since, it was said in the public press that the whole correspondence was not submitted, as the resolution only called for what had taken place between our Government and Great Britain. It was not reported in the papers that the Belgian Government complained that anything should have been withheld. As an act of justice to Delfosse, he now offered the following resolution:

"Resolved. That the President of the United States be requested, if not in his judgment incompatible with public interests, to communicate to the Senate copies of all the correspondence not heretofore submitted, and of all memoranda and minutes in possession of the government, relating to the selection of M. Maurice Delfosse as one of the commissioners under the treaty of Washington, on the fisheries question." Agreed to.

HOUSE.—Among the bills introduced and referred to-day was one by Mr. Vance, of North Carolina, to amend the bankrupt law so as to secure to the debtor his homestead to the value of $1,000, and $500 of personal property.

The army appropriation bill was got out of the Committee of the Whole, and in the House the amendment increasing the army to 25,000 men was defeated by two majority. The force therefore is fixed in the bill at 20,000. A final vote on the passage of the bill was not reached.

The Investigating Committee was three hours in consultation. The Republicans favor the broadest inquiry; the Democrats favor limiting the investigation to new matter, but not to go over the ground already covered by the Congressional investigation.

Mr. Kellogg, of Louisiana, submitted an amendment to the Texas Pacific Railroad bill, providing that in order to secure to the States of Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi, the full advantage to be derived from the construction of the several lines of railway hereinbefore authorized the New Orleans Pacific Railroad Company, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Louisiana shall have authority to construct a railroad from New Orleans to the junction with the Texas Pacific Road, as to form an all rail line from New Orleans to the initial point of the Texas Pacific Road on the Pacific coast at San Diego. Referred to the Committee on Railroads.

Stock Breeding Interest in North Carolina.

Correspondence of the News.

I offer a purse of $100 for the get of my horse Woodburn Hambletonian to trot for ½ mile heats when 3 years old, to be contended for each fall and to be increased in proportion to the horse's success. Any colts bred in North Carolina can compete in this race by each Sire adding a like sum of $100. No entry fee charged. To be styled Breeder's Purse.

Can't owners of running Sires offer the same? With such good ones as Abd-El-Koree, Red Dick, Outcast, Jenifer, Austral and Ilderem (by imported Australian dame Nannie Butler by Lexington) owned by Mr. Peter Hauston. The sport should be fine, to say nothing of the great aid it would render our Agricultural Fairs.

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., May 21.

The District Convention of the 9th Judicial District convened here to-day, and nominated J. C. L. Gudger, Esq., Judge, after the thirteenth ballot, upon which his nomination was made unanimous. Mr. Gudger will give entire satisfaction in this District, and is every way worthy the confidence and support of the Democracy of the entire State.

Haywood court is now in session, and is presided over by Judge Schenck, who is giving our people entire satisfaction, being one of the best Judges we have had in many a day; and we hope the State Convention will place him on the Supreme Court Bench, though we really need such Judges to educate our people in the laws of the State.

A Question for the Bar.

Correspondence of the News.

CLEMMONSVILLE, N. C. May 25,

We are so far removed from the centers of agitation that scarcely a ripple has yet disturbed our political surface. Little is being said with regard to the coming contest, but many are deeply concerned about the late decision of the U. S. Supreme Court in the case of Edwards vs Kearsey. Of the correctness of the decision in the abstract there be no doubt; but how far it affects our homstead and personal property exemptions is the question, It can only affect them in so far as they can properly be said to "impair the obligation of contracts." At the time of the adoption of our present constitution, there were, and had been for a number of years, laws on our Statute book exempting from execution personal property of the value of $250. It would, therefore, seem that an exemption of that character and amount, against all debts contracted since the passage of said laws, must still be allowed—that to that extent the personal property exemption established by our present constitution and laws as against old debts is not affected. The attention of the bar of the State is respectfully called to this question. D.

Alamance County Convention.

Correspondence of the News.

COMPANY SHOPS, May 25th.

At the call of the Executive Committee, the Democratic Conservative party of Alamance, met at the Court House in Graham to day for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Convention at Durham on the 11th, of June, and also the Convention in Raleigh on June 13. Col Jesse Gant was called to the chair, and E. S. Parker, of the Gleaner, was appointed Secretary. Five delegates from each township were appointed to attend the Convention at Durham, and the same number at Raleigh. All the townships in the county were represented except one.

NOMINATING CONVENTION.

It was decided that the convention to nominate county candidates be held on Saturday the 6th, July, and on motion, it was resolved that it be a mass convention—all democrats attending to be considered delegates—and each each township to be allowed to cast twenty-five votes.

PROBABLE NOMINEES.

You can count on Alamance for a a full vote for the candidates nominated at Durham and Raleigh. Col. Thomas M. Holt will certainly represent us in the next Senate of North Carolina. It is almost impossible to say who of the twenty-five that are willing to sacrifice themselves for the good of their country will go to the House. We shall send a good Democrat.

Our delegates go to Durham and Raleigh untrammelled, as no instructions were given them in the matter.

SENTIMENT ON THE SENATORSHIP.

The people of Alamance feel and know that they owe Gov. Vance a debt of gratitude that they can never repay for his services to the party and the State. They are anxious to reward him in any way that may be well-pleasing to him. Nothing was said in the convention to-day with reference to our next U. S. Senator, but your correspondent has heard many of the best citizens of the county express themselves freely on the subject, and every one, to a man, wants Gov. Vance to go to the Senate. Some of our most worthy citizens say they will not vote for any candidate who will not support him for that place, and they mean what they say. We venture the assertion that five-sixths of the Democrats of the county would vote for Gov. Vance, in preference to any other man in the State.

THE TAX ON DRUMMERS.

A Plea for the Commercial Tourist.

Correspondence of the News.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., May 25.

I see in your issue of yesterday some very proper remarks in relation to the new project for taxing drummers. This scheme is the child of Chinese exclusiveness and is prompted by a spirit, of which experience would soon make us ashamed. As you invite merchants to express their opinion I unhesitatingly declare my disapprobation of the measure. Commercial travelers are already taxed fifty dollars apiece for the sale of their wares in North Carolina and this of itself is an odious discrimination. Why should a house already taxed in the fact of the expenses of its wandering agents be still further discriminated against in favor of others who seem indifferent to our trade and keep their employees at home?

Freedom from municipal restraint is the life of trade. Each dollar laid upon commerce comes sooner or later from the pockets of the people and all tariffs are eventually paid by the consumers of the goods sold. This proposition to increase the tax on drummers to five hundred dollars apiece would re-act in many ways to our disadvantage. It would decrease the profits of our hotels and public carriers, and bring inconvenience and loss to merchants, who would be compelled to go North and spend considerable sums now kept at home. We now frequently buy cheaper and more expeditiously from the traveling agent than we could from the house he represents. We are not obliged to trade with the drummers if not so disposed, and protest that we can care for ourselves with no help from these gentlemen, who are trying to make capital by exciting our people against a class of men, who are not only harmless, but beneficial to trade. I represent the class with whom the drummers deal, and I, as a merchant, trust that our people will let the commercial travelers alone. They pay enough tax already and those houses sending out drummers afford positions of profit and credit to many young men, who were reared in and yet love the State of North Carolina. I repeat that they not only benefit our hotels and lines of travel, but are also a great convenience to the merchants. You are right in the views you have expressed and receive the hearty concurrence of

Yours truly, W. L. McGHEE.

Chatham County.

Correspondence of the News.

PITTSBORO, May 25, 1878.

Our town was visited yesterday evening about 4 o'clock by one of the severest hail storms ever witnessed in this section of the country. Some of the hail stones were as large as a hen's egg. Great damage has been done to the wheat, the fruit crop, and gardens, in the line of its passage, which was several miles wide.

County politics is the subject of nearly all conversations now. We have ten candidates for the Legislature, four for Sheriff, three for Superior Court Clerk, and several for Register of Deeds, so it is hard to say who will be our nominees. The old incumbents have the vantage ground so far.

We want to see John H. Dillard as one of the Associate Justices.

TAXING THE DRUMMERS.

The Proposition to Tax Commercial Travellers Five Hundred Dollars.

Views of the Raleigh Merchants.

We continue this morning the publication of the views of the merchants of this city respecting the proposed prohibition tax of five hundred dollars on commercial travellers, known the world over as drummers.

QUESTION.

Are you in favor of or against the proposition for the State to tax drummers $500, so as to prohibit them from doing business in the State and what are your views on the subject?

ANSWERS.

J. M. Rosenbaum, clothing and furnishing goods: I am in favor of a tax of $500 on drummers who sell to consumers, but not on those who sell to the trade.

Len H. Adams, heavy grocer, is in favor of a tax of $1,000.

I. Oettinger, millinery and fancy goods: I am against the tax of $500; I am rather in favor of reducing it. To increase the tax would be a great injury to the State.

M. Grausman, fancy grocer: I am not in favor of taxing drummers $500. I would be in favor of it, if a distinction could be made between those who are selling to merchants and those who are selling to private customers—let the first pay a tax of $50 and the others one of $1,000.

Heller Bros, boots and shoes, are in favor of a license of from $300 to $500, so as to keep peddlers away, as they have seen them come from Northern cities with a tape-line taking measures for suits of clothes and shirts, which is certainly infringing on the rights of our retail merchants, who are paying city, county and State taxes and license. Then we have another class of peddlers under the name of drummers that come here with their samples and go into every store and peddle any quantity from two to twelve pairs of shoes, which is also detrimental to our regular merchants. It is true they may be beneficial to our hotels and bar-rooms, but not to merchants in general.

W. H. Martin, bar-room, is opposed to the proposition because he thinks it is oppressive.

Alfred Williams, books and stationery, has not formed any opinion on the subject.

L. Branson, books and stationery: any merchant can sell anything he pleases by sample in New York, as I understand it. The law in this State is no doubt largely evaded. In the book line I am benefitted by being able to select here from samples; it saves the expense of a trip or two north each year. I don't see the wisdom of any tax on drummers. So long as the drummers do not sell at retail and confine themselves to wholesale orders, they render good service.

W. H. Morriss, furniture dealer, is in favor of a tax of $500 on drummers for the reason that they do not confine themselves to the legitimate trade.

E. Fasnach, jeweler: I am opposed to a tax of $500, for the reason that drummers coming to see us enable us to purchase our goods without going north, saving a great deal of expense, which enables us to sell goods cheaper; taxing the drummer would be taxing the consumer.

C. C. Clawson, dealer in picture frames: I am in favor of taxing drummers $500, because they will not confine themselves to legitimate dealers.

T. R. Loader, merchant tailor: I have no objection to wholesale drummers, but the retail drummer is a nuisance and if there is no other way of reaching him, I am in favor of a tax of $1,000.

John Armstrong, books and stationery: on the whole I am opposed to the tax, because, frequently, I can purchase goods by sample on better terms than by ordering.

Mrs. M. A. Hardie, milliner and fancy goods, has not formed an opinion.

J. M. Monie, retail grocer, is opposed to the tax, because any restrictions that are placed upon trade or commerce, in any community, tend to operate against the poorer classes in that community.

Petty and Jones, wholesale and retail dry goods: let a tax be imposed of $500 on all non resident salesmen, whether at retail or wholesale, of their own or other manufactories, as we believe thereby, with proper, strict and full enforcement of the law the State would receive a larger amount of revenue and the interests of the resident business men sustain less injury than at present.

L. Rosenthal, dry goods and clothier: I am not opposed to the wholesale drummer, but I think the retail drummer should be kept away even if he had to be taxed $1,000.

George Ziegler, tobacco and cigars, has not formed an opinion.

W. B. Hutchings, harness manufacturer, is in favor of the $500 tax.

R. H. Bradley, confectioner, does not care to express an opinion.

D. Oettinger, boots and shoes, is in favor of increasing the tax to $100, and enforcing it strictly.

Julius Lewis & Co., hardware: trade would be benefited if the tax were increased.

C. D. Heartt, boots and shoes, is opposed to the tax of $500.

Law & Co., crockery and glassware, do not think it will hurt to have a tax of $500.

Another purpose was to place the services in the hands of the clergy. This was very successfully carried out, and the number of people present greatly exceeded that in attendance on any previous occasion.

Railroad Meeting in Wilkes.

Charlotte Observer.

A gentleman who has just returned from a visit to the county of Wilkes, reports that a very large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of the county was held at the court house in Wilkesboro last Wednesday in the interest of a railroad. The people are very much interested in the subject of an outlet and the sense of the meeting was that the old Plaster Banks and Salt Works charter should be revived and a narrow gauge road be built from Statesville to Wilkesboro by this route. Though no definite action was taken, the people expressed themselves as anxious for the road and as willing to subscribe liberally to its construction. Several very excellent speeches were made in the convention.

Terrific Hail Storm.

From statements of eye-witnesses we learn that on Saturday afternoon last, about 6 o'clock, a most terrific storm of wind and hail passed through a portion of Little River township, near Wakefield. Within the brief period of twenty minutes the falling hail-stones covered the ground to a depth of 18 inches. The great force of the wind threw them up in drifts to a depth of four or five feet. The width of the storm belt was about one and one-half miles. The hail-stones were in size of the dimensions of a hen's egg. The violence with which these fell was so great as to entirely strip the trees of their foliage and fruit, and destroy the gardens and crops of the farmers in its path. The following prominent farmers were seriously injured as to their crops and fruit: Messrs. W. H. Chamblee, A. J. Richardson, L. O. Liles, B. D. Chamblee, J. W. Horton, S. W. Pierce. On the farms of these parties not a stalk of cotton, corn or wheat was left standing. The violence of the hail was such as to smash the windows in the houses of these gentlemen, while the whirling wind, entering the thus opened windows, played havoc with light household articles. The scene during the passage of the storm was awful in its grandeur. The roaring sweep of the wind, in its driving blasts, the rush and clatter of the great hail stones, all created a feeling of terror in every breast. The storm was even worse than the one that blew down so many of our beautiful trees in the early Spring of 1877.

Reports of the almost unparalleled violence of the storm and of the violence of the hail, continue to come in from this and adjoining counties. Mr. M. F. Scarboro brought in yesterday some pine cones which the enormous hail-stones had torn from the trees, and in so doing had beaten them in such manner as would a hammer stroke. Currants were also shown, stripped from the trees and cut in twain by the violent hail. Wheat heads are shown with every grain beaten out.

Reports from Chatham county state that the violence of the storm there was almost unprecedented. The severity of the hail, and its effects upon crops and fruits have never been equaled.

Vance for the U. S. Senate.

Hickory Press.

The Western counties all seem fully determined on having Vance elected to the United States Senate at the next session of the Legislature, and in order that their wishes might not be thwarted, the good people in many sections are pledging their candidate, to vote for him. Some papers are howling, out upon such action, but we claim that the people know what they want and we also claim that they have a right to demand that their representatives carry out their wishes. At the convention at Lincolnton last Saturday, the citizens were very emphatic in their language to their nominees relative to voting for Vance. They were instructed to vote for him first, last and all the time. In this action the good people of Lincoln were only echoing the sentiment of her larger sister, Catawba. Vance is not only competent to fill the place now occupied by Merrimon, but is entitled to it—and we are glad to see that his friends are positive in their demand that he shall have it.

State Guard Notes.

The Fifth Battalion (colored), N. C. S. G., under command of Lt. Colonel George L. Mabson, will parade for inspection and review on Thurday next, the 30th inst., at Wilmington. The two companies of the battalion from Fayetteville and the one from Charlotte are expected to arrive there on Wednesday night. The parade will take place in the forenoon, and in the afternoon the battalion will participate in the National memorial ceremonies.

Another white company is in course of organization at Wilmiugton.

We are pleased to learn that the Goldsboro Rifles, Capt. W. H. H. Cobb, have secured a splendid hall for an armory, over the handsome brick store of C. J. Perkins, Esq. The Rifles is one of the crack companies in North Carolina. The liberality and public spirit of Mr. Perkins is highly commendable, and will no doubt be deeply appreciated by all who feel an interest in the company. The Goldsboro Rifles will now become one of the first companies of the Guard.

JUDGE SCHENCK.

The West and the East.

Cor. Union Express.

To secure harmony in the party Judge Schenck finally withdrew from the contest for Chief Justice, and determined to allow his name to be used only for Associate Justice. Then it was hoped that the opposition would cease, but it was carried on with greater vigor than ever, and now the implacables have the cheek to ask Judge Schenck to withdraw altogether from the canvass. As a friend of Judge Schenck I protest against his doing anything of the kind. He made every concession that could have been asked, when he withdrew from the contest for Chief Justice, and his friends should not submit for him to make any further concessions.

It is a noteworthy fact that all of the opposition to Judge Schenck has come from the eastern counties of the State. The West has not attempted to dictate to the, east, who from that portion of the State, should be put upon the ticket for Supreme Court Judges, and she does not recognize the right of the East to dictate to her. Judge Schenck is the candidate of the West, and it is not probable that she will be satisfied that any other one of her sons should occupy the position upon the ticket which she has sought to give him. If the East persists in defeating the nomination of the man whom the West has named as her choice for the position, would it be wrong or unnatural for the West to support the man whom the East may name from her section? All that the West asks is mutual concession and confidence, and she will no tbe satisfied with anything less than this.

The republican party in North Carolina is not dead, and it will not require any great indiscretion on the part of the Democrats to give it a signal victory on the first Thursday in August. The West is really the Democratic stronghold of the State, and the East owes to it a debt of gratitude, which it should recognize at least to the extent of being willing to vote for the man whom she names for a position on the tictket, first, last and all the time.

Tents and Camp Equipage.

Congressional Record, May 21.

Mr. Scales introduced a bill (H. R. No. 4896), to supply the State of North Carolina with tents and camp equipage, for the use of the militia while in camp for drill and for other purposes essential to their discipline, organization, and efficiency; which was read a first and second time, referred to the Committee on Militia, and ordered to be printed.

The Communists who paraded at St. Louis last Sunday were beer-thirsty instead of blood-thirsty. All the bars in the Park were crowded; so constant was the demand that drinkers had to form in lines and take their turns; everybody had money and everybody was well-dressed.

The nominee of the Democratic Convention of Pennsylvania for Secretary of Internal affairs bears the euphonious designation of J. Simpson Africa. Jokes on the invasion of Africa by the Democrats for a candidate were numerous and juicy in the Convention and subsequently in the press.

A lovely landscape all dotted over with unsightly boulders, is not more unpleasant to the sight than is a human face disfigured with bumps and pimples, those prime evidences of impurity evidences of impurity of the blood. Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture will remove sll such disfigurements promptly.

Jewels of the Crown of Scotland.

At Edinburg, Scotland, some years since, the Jewels of the Crown were locked in a box, that box in another, and so on, until they were supposed to be burglar-proof. They were then locked up in the vault of the castle, there to remain for one hundred years, the keys being placed in a mortar and fired into the sea. Scarce fifty years passed by, and the modern lock-picker opens the vault and boxes without trouble. So the science of medincine, when studied with the aid of chemistry and the microscope, becomes plain and simple, and diseases that were regarded incurable a generation ago, now readily yield to the remedies employed by the modern and progressive physician. A decade of years since, and women were taught to believe that their peculiar diseases and weaknesses were incurable; but now hundreds of once bedridden women in the United States will testify to the fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has effected their perfect and permanent cure.

TOLEDO, OHIO, DEC. 6th, 1876.

DEAR SIR.—About five years since my wife was taken sick, and though we employed the best physicians in our city yet she gradually grew worse, so that she was confined to the bed, Every remedy I had tried, or could find, flailed to cure or even give releif. At last I procured a bottle of your Favorite Prescription and to my surprise it gave almost instant relief, and with a little perseverance, an entire cure was effected.

Ever gratefully yours,

GEO. BODENMILLER.

THE Duplin Democrats have placed an excellent ticket in the field. There is a dead-lock on the Sheriffalty.

CROPS throughout this State have been seriously damaged by the heavy rains and hail-storms. Mild winters seem to make bad summers.

ELSEWHERE will be found an account of the terrific hail storm which visited this county on Saturday. Nothing like it in severity has ever been witnessed in this part of the State.

THE news from Europe is more pacific in in its nature. Good feeling prevails at the various capitals. But Austria has committed an overt act which rather mixes things.

THE Peace Congress of Europe is to be held on the 11th of June. The determination of the powers to confer together on the Eastern question largely diminishes the chances of war.

THE county convention of Nash was held yesterday. Perfect harmony prevailed. We may expect good tidings from that quarter in August. An absolutely irresistible ticket was placed in the field. Hon. J. J. Davis was endorsed for Congress.

THE Pennsylvania authorities are preparing for a threatened strike in the coal mining regions. Several regiments of the National Guard have been ordered to be in readiness. Governor Hartranft should manage his riots this year without calling on the Federal Government for troops.

THE Chowan Democratic convention recommends to the State Convention, to be held in this city on the 13th prox., the name of our townsman, Maj. Henry A. Gilliam, as one eminently qualified by intellectual ability and legal attainments to fill the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

DURING the past week, Ex-Gov. Curtin, accompanied by a number of Northern gentlemen, visited Charlotte and the King's Mountain mine, in which they are largely interested. There is a heavy investment of Northern capital in the mines of that favored region. If these ventures prove profitable, there will be no lack of money for the development of the mineral deposits of Gaston, Lincoln and Mecklenburg. We trust that Gov. Curtin, and his brother capitalists will not be disappointed in their hopes and expectations.

A MERCHANT of Franklinton, this morning, puts in a strong plea for the freedom of travelling commercial agents from discriminating or prohibitory taxation. The imposition of the proposed five hundred dollar tax would, we take it, largely benefit the wholesale traders of our State, but what would be the effect upon retail dealers? Advantage would certainly accrue to the merchants of the cities, but what good would this contemplated burden on commerce bring to the vast array of merchants and shopkeepers who are established in the towns and villages and at cross-roads and mill sites? "The greatest good to the greatest number," should be the governing principle in this matter.

OUR Alamance correspondent says some of the most worthy citizens of that county declare they will not vote for any candidate for the Legislature who will not support Governor Vance for the United States Senate. We would advise these zealous friends of our Chief Magistrate, to attend the County Convention called for July 6th; and if those who oppose his promotion shall triumph over those who favor it, and anti-Vance men are chosen to represent Alamance in the General Assembly next winter, all should bow to the will of the people, and cheerfully support the nominees. There is nothing in the political record of Gov. Vance more clearly defined than this, that he has never sought or obtained promotion at the expense of his party, or in defiance of the expressed wishes of his countrymen. In this, he is an exemplar to Democrats throughout the State.

Dr. Baird's Complaint Not Sustained.

The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly at Knoxville, Tenn., on the 25th inst., concluded the judicial case of Dr. E. T. Baird against the Synod of Virginia. His complaint was not sustained. It will be remembered that Dr. Baird was Secretary of the Publishing Committee in Richmond, Va., and his accounts were found short about twenty thousand dollars, and he was tried and convicted by his Presbytery and the Synod of Virginia, and deposed from the ministry. He took an appeal to the General Assembly on the ground that the proper notices and time had not been given him, and that he had been hastily and unjustly dealt with. It will be seen that the lower courts have been sustained.

The Potter Investigation.

The committee appointed under the Potter resolution to investigate the electoral frauds of 1876-'77, have organized and are about to begin work. A tremendous outcry is raised against this search after truth, by the Republicans. Some declare that the movement is revolutionary, and profess to be greatly shocked at the bare idea of unseating Mr. Hayes. Others regard the investigation as simply a means of manufacturing political capital this fall, and profess to believe that it will be as futile in its results as it will be hurtful to the party that originated it. Others again, seeing the hand of the master manipulator of the matter in the work, console themselves with the reflection that it will fail, and confidently predict that it will lead to the election of Grant or Blaine in 1880. So much for Republican sentiment. If there is anything consolatory in the views wherewith they delude themselves, they are welcome to it all.

The Democrats don't think they themselves are going to be hurt by proceeding with the investigation, and proceed they will, to the bitter end, unless they weaken and yield to the bull-dozing radical leaders of the North. They should not hesitate. All fair-minded men now approve the movement, since it is seen clearly that no serious agitation will be caused by it, and no injury result to the business interests of the country. A full and fair investigation is demanded. The time is gone by for temporizing with those who corrupted the ballot or stole the fruits of the popular election of 1876. It is only by a rigid examination into and exposure of the wicked practices connected with the electoral counts of Louisiana and Florida that the victory won by our party can be made perfectly manifest, the purity of the ballot protected, and the right of the majority to rule vindicated. And if it be proven that Mr. Hayes was a party to the frauds, he should be unseated, not by upsetting the decision of the electoral commission, if it were possible for that to be done, but by impeachment.

It is needless to disguise the fact that the Democratic party is far from united in this matter. There are those who believe the Potter resolutions unwise and senseless, and that the agitation of Hayes' title at this time is most impolitic and will result in no good to our party or to the country. Those of this way of thinking appear to be in a decided minority, and as it becomes more and more apparent every day that the peace of the land will not be in the least disturbed by the investigation, the numbers of this minority are evidently dwindling.

The North Carolina delegation support the Potter resolutions. In doing so, we believe they are not at all in advance of the Democratic sentiment of the State.

The Bankrupt Law and the Homestead.

The bill to repeal the bankrupt law is, as we have before stated, still pending, and open to amendment. It will be remembered that the repeal bill was on the very eve of final passage. The decision of the Supreme Court in the Kearsey case was rendered. The North Carolina representatives at Washington saw at once the distressing situation into which many of our people would be plunged. They sprang to the rescue. The bill was scotched. And now it looks as if it will lie over until the next Congress.

In the meantime the opportunity for amending the bankrupt law and putting in saving clauses to the repeal bill is being seized upon. Gen. R. B. Vance has been quick to avail himself of the chance. Yesterday he introduced a bill to amend the bankrupt law so as to secure to the debtor his homestead to the value of one thousand dollars, and five hundred dollars personal property. It is to be earnestly hoped, in behalf of those likely to suffer in this State, that this amendment will prevail.

DYING words are always of interest. Men stand with bated breath in the presence of those who are just about to step off into that dark, mysterious unknown which spreads around us, and is familiarly termed eternity. The criminal on the scaffold, is ever an object of great attraction to the multitude. Every word that falls from the lips of a condemned man, just at the moment of his execution, is eagerly caught up by the gaping spectators. Why this is so, we cannot undertake to explain. The following is the speech made from the scaffold by the negro Henry Roberts, who on last Friday was hanged for murder at Shelby. He said:

"This is my last of this world. I am innocent of the crime of which I am accused. The evidence against me was made; it was false; I knew nothing of his death; he was my friend. I am ready for heaven. Jesus will gather me in his arms. I thank God I am innocent of the crime charged against me. I have no hatred against any one. Straight and close is the way from earth to heaven, yet Jesus will receive me. Remember how Christ was put to death like me. I have a home in heaven. I was never before in court or jail before this. This is my last sight of you, but thank God I die innocent. I bid you all farewell!"

There does not seem to have been the shadow of a doubt as to the guilt of this man, yet, like hundreds of other wretches who have gone the same way, he maintained his innocence to the very last. Dying with a lie on his lips he yet expected to go straight to the home of the blessed. Old Noah Cherry, we understand, is confident that the pearly gates of heaven are standing wide open to receive his soul when he shall have paid the penalty of his terrible crime. One of his companions in guilt, Harris Atkinson, as reckless a chunk of midnight as ever had the frowning gallows to loom up over his pathway in life, declares that he expects to go straight to hell, on the fateful 14th day of June. This frank declaration will give him singular prominence in the long line of doomed men who have gone to the dusky regions of death from the deep shadows of the scaffold.

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face.

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately no one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA

BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Each subscriber will see plainly printed on the yellow label, on which his name is printed, the date when his subscription will expire. Manufacturing Items.

The Lehman Manufacturing Company, situated one mile above Prattville, Ala., on Autauga creek, runs 100 looms and 5,385 spindles, requiring 110 operatives to keep the machinery going.

There is $2,000,000 capital invested in cotton manufactories in and around Augusta, Ga. These factories run 71,000 spindles, and consume annually 34,000 bales of cotton. They give employment to 1,800 persons, whose annual wages amount to $450,000.

Four firms in Salisbury, N. C., shipped during the year 1877, 32,202 pounds of sassafras, and 1,350 pounds of pennyroyal oil. Averaging the sassafras at 35 cents per pound, we have $11,270.70; the pennyroyal at 85 cents, we have $1,147.50; making a total of $12,418.20.

The city of Lowell, Mass., was founded in 1832, and now operates cotton mills that cost $13,000,000, giving employment to 13,500 operatives, mostly women, boys and girls, running 448,180 spindles, and converting, annually, 60,000 bales of cotton, worth $4,500,000, into textile fabrics, worth nearly $15,000,000.

THE FRUIT CROP.—The fruit crop of the United States for the year 1877, amounted in value to $140,000,000. This was about one-half of the outcome from cereals. Fruit of all kinds and from all climates are now raised in the United States, the vine prospering finely everywhere, and the oranges of Florida, Louisiana and California, surpassing those of Italy and Spain. The prospects now are that the fruit crop of the present year will much surpass that of the past.

Opinion of Dr. R. S. Steuart, President Maryland Hospital, Baltimore: * * "I have used Colcen's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator for more than a year, and recommend it as one of the most efficient preparations I have ever met with. It combines the virtues of food and tonic in a remarkable way." Williams & Haywood, Agents.

THE LARGEST FARM IN THE WORLD.—The largest farm in the world is 100 miles square, and is situated in Ellis county, Kansas, its proprietor is a wealthy Englishman named George Grant, who named it estate Victoria in honor of his Sovereign. Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, higher pressures with stationary to lower temperatures; winds mostly from the northwest to northeast; partly cloudy weather and occasional rains will prevail.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Peaches are being shipped from Charleston to the Northern cities.

——Wheat harvesting has commenced in several of the western counties.

——The removal of the old McKee house, on Wilmington and Martin streets, caused a little ripple of excitement yesterday.

——The farmers seem to be more and more depressed by the weather, which continues to be unfavorable to the growth of the crops.

——The Secretary of State is now distributing the 78th volume N. C. Supreme Court Reports, prepared by the Hon. Thos. S. Kenan, Attorney General, Reporter.

——The improvements in progress on the old Haywood house on Fayetteville street, are such as to add much to the appearance of the portion of that thoroughfare by which it stands.

——There will be a match game of base-ball at 3:30 this afternoon, at Nash Square, between the "Juniors" and the "Slide-abouts." Seats will be provided for ladies and others.

——Jim Taylor, colored, for many years a faithful laborer at the oil Mill Farm in this county, and who has many friends and relations in this city, died on yesterday of pneumonia.

——Some days since an article appeared in the News, asking why the charge of ten cents is made for admittance into the penitentiary. Col. Hicks, superintendent, says that this slight fee is for the purpose of purchasing books for the convicts.

——We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of Fenner B. Hill, family grocer, corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets. Mr. Hill has been engaged in the trade for several years, and for two years in this city. He keeps an excellent stock of goods, and desires patronage.

Mayor's Court.

One delinquent was tried at this tribunal of justice yesterday, charged with acting in a disorderly manner. He was permitted to go free, upon payment of $5 and costs.

Calling a Pastor.

A congregational meeting was held at the First Presbyterian Church last evening, for the purpose of selecting a pastor to be called to take charge in August, at which time the term of Rev. C. R. Vaughan, D. D., expires. The meeting was very harmonious. The result was that Rev. John S. Watkins, of Charlotte county, Va., was elected unanimously. Resolutions were passed complimentary to the Rev. Dr. Vaughan.

Ice Cream Festival.

The weather permitting, the ladies of the Congregation of the second Presbyterian Church will hold an ice cream festival on Wednesday evening, at the store on Fayetteville street, just opposite Tucker's. In addition to the above mentioned delicacy of the season, others will be provided. The evening and its amusements will be made truly pleasurable for all visitors. The place is the same at which the ladies of the Church of the Good Shepherd held their last festival. The price of admission will be only ten cents.

For the Penitentiary.

Sheriff D. Spruill, of Washington county, has turned over to the authorities of the State Penitentiary Ben. Smallwood, colored, who was sentenced to be hanged, but whose sentence was commuted to imprisonment at hard labor, for life.

SUNDAY'S SERVICES.

Sermons From our City Pulpits.

Last Sabbath came with all of summer's heat, a close, still atmosphere, and a temperature which rendered pedestrianism a fatiguing effort. The changes of the season, so rapid, so varied, have created a doubt as to whether this be spring or summer. However, despite the sultry oppression of the day, the devout would not forego their devotions, so that though none of our churches were crowded, the congregations were respectable in point of numbers. We endeavor to give below a synopsis of the remarks of a few of our divines from their respective pulpits.

CHRIST CHURCH.

Rev. Matt. M. Marshall, D. D., Rector, conducted the services of the day. Before beginning his sermon he read a pastoral letter from Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, Bishop of the Diocese, in regard to home missions. The Rector stated that next Thursday being Holy Taursday, there would be religious services both morning and afternoon. The text of the day's discourse was St. James I: 22, 23, 24. Bible truths are moral mirrors. There is not a verse, not a line, but bears for each of us its proper lessons. They show to all alike the dangers that overshadow, as well as the duties of each of us. Men are so prone to procrastinate; to say that at some time in the future they will change their ways. But they wish for "a little more sleep, a little more slumber, a little more folding of the hands in sleep." Obedience to the teachings of the Word is a prerequisite. Every act of sincere obedience will be attended with its own blessing. But to learn to do well we must first learn to cease to do evil. This is the true way to become Christians. God, who gives the work to be done, will give also strength to the doer. The man who looks must see his own spiritual defilement, and warned threat, turn from his ways and grow worthier. Religion is the most natural of all ideas or beliefs. Nothing repulsive, all is attractive. It is pre-eminently the law of liberty. It offers us that spiritual refuge we so much need. The age of miracles is past. God now works according to the analogies of nature. To say that a man, who one hour is steeped in sin, can in the next be made free from sin, is to declare a miracle. These spiritual changes require time and earnest effort. We must seek faith, not sit with folded hands. The Good Shepherd will lead us to the fold if we give ourselves to His tender care.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN.

The pulpit was occupied by Rev. J. M. Atkinson, D. D., pastor. His text in the morning was Rev. XX:12. The future is conditioned by the past and dependent upon it. The text presents a sublime, prophetic vision, the winding up of this world's history. All who have ever lived then summoned before the grand tribunal. The books opened: 1st. The Book of Nature; God's name inscribed in large and legible characters, on every page. There is hardly any spectacle so sad as that of the votary of science, blind to the personal agency of God. 2nd. The Book of Scripture; the simple and sublime story of the cross is nowhere graven on the volume of nature, but recorded in forms imperishable as the everlasting rocks; read in more than two hundred of the languages of the earth; destined to be read in all and shine with as wide effulgence as the sun. 3rd. The Book of Conscience; no part of our nature is more wonderful. It points as directly to God as the needle to the pole; is God's viceregent and voice in the heart. It has a rightful, if not a real, supremacy. The peculiar strength of christianity is the hold it has on the conscience, The believer feels that when he is most under the power of the bible he is most alive to all that is good and right. 4th. The Book of Providence. This takes in everything outside of God himself, all worlds and all agents. 5th. The Book of Life. This is specially mentioned because it contains the names of the elect of God; the nobility of the universe, the true members of the invisible church, embraced in the everlasting covenant of redemption.

SALISBURY STREET BAPTIST.

The pastor, Rev. Thos. H. Pritchard, D. D., delivered both the sermons of the day. The subject was acceptable worship. We ought to worship God because we must worship something. Because He created and preserved us, and worshping Him exalts us. How shall we worship Him? As did the Jews? As do the Romish and Greek churches, with ceremony, pomp and splendor; or with the simplicity of the New Testament dispensation. That is a spiritual worship which God requires. Some practical lessons were given as to proper behavior while in the house of God. In the evening the subject of the discourse was the doom of Belshazzar.

At the Edenton street Methodist, the pastor, Rev. W. S. Black, after an absence at Atlanta, again occupied his pulpit.

Wake Criminal Court.

Court met at 10 A. M. yesterday, His Honor, Judge Strong, presiding. The following cases were considered.

States vs. Ed. G. Haywood, Jr., and Louis H. Haywood—Indictment assault and battery. The following judgment was rendered by the Court: "All the evidence which could throw any light upon this case has been heard, and it has been argued on both sides with a zeal, eloquence and ability, which would do honor to any bar, in this or any other country. It was said in the argument that the case had been tried at the tribunal of public opinion, and that a sentence of deep condemnation had been pronounced against the defendants. Of this the Court was already fully aware, but should it allow itself to be moved thereby, in the slightest degree, from its own convictions, it would be a worse criminal than the defendants arraigned at its bar. This Court will pronounce its own judgment, with a full sense of the responsibility which it owes to its own conscience and to the great and final Judge. There had been no previous ill-will between the parties, and the idea of preconceived malice is out of the question. The defendants were acting under the strongest impulses to which our natures can be subjected—that of indignation caused by a mother's statement, with agitation and passionate tears, that she had been treated with gross indignity. No serious damage was done to the excellent gentleman upon whom the battery was committed. The defendants are young, and on the threshold of life.

The Court will not imprison them, and thereon incur the hazard of blasting their lives by bringing upon them a sense of degredation, and robbing them of their self-respect. The only alternative left is a fine, and this they can ill afford to pay. Yet they have committed a serious breach of the law; two young men, in the vigor of early manhood, having beaten with sticks an unarmed and gray-haired man, in the presence of females, and in so doing invaded a building devoted in part to the worship of God. And they must be punished, in order that they and others may be deterred from the commission of similar offences. Let the defendant, E. G. Haywood, Jr., pay a fine of $100, and the defendant Louis H. Haywood pay $50; sums which, though trifling to many, will be heavy upon them, and let them be in the custody of the Sheriff until the fines and costs are paid."

State vs. Walter Scott and James Macklin. Burglary. After almost exhausting a venire of 100 men, a jury was empaneled, and pending the examination of State's witnesses, court adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

A Manifest Absurdity.

It is manifestly absurd to claim for a mere stimulant, tonic and alterative properties. Yet this is what is daily done by the vendors of cheap local bitters, colored to make them look attractive, and agreeably flavored, but the alcoholic basis of which is of the vilest and most hurtful description. The transcendent success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the leading alterative tonic of the United States, has produced many of these compounders of drams in disguise, to attempt the counterfeiting of this standard medicine, but their efforts have never proved successful on a large scale, and they have themselves in many instances notoriously "come to grief," through the instrumentality of the law.

The genuine Bitters have indeed, a spirituous basis, but they are emphatically a medicine, since their botanic ingredients are signally efficacious in overcoming and preventing chills and fever, dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, and many other disorders.
